Notes:

- The total of 120 hours required for CSU's B.S., Legal Studies degree consists of 60 lower division course hours and 60 upper division course hours (see attached CSU curriculum worksheet).
- Of the total 71 possible hours transferable from ATC, 48 are currently a part of ATC's A.A.S. curriculum (see attached ATC advisement sheet). CSU will award credit for the remainder of the courses if a student has completed them successfully at ATC.
- Of the courses listed on the attached ATC curriculum, the following classes will NOT be accepted for transfer credit for the B.S. at CSU:
  - COMP 1000-Intro to Computers
  - Occupational Electives
  - PARA 2210-Paralegal Internship I and
  - PARA 2215-Paralegal Internship II.
- For transfer credit, all paralegal studies courses require a C or better.
- At least nine credit hours or equivalent of legal specialty courses must be taken through synchronous instruction at ATC and CSU; and,
- Transfer students must comply with CSU residency requirements: A minimum of 30 semester credit hours in residence at Clayton State University. At least 21 of the 30 must be upper division hours counted toward program requirements other than free electives.
