Students had until May 12, 2021 to complete the survey. Please see the FAQs below and if students have additional questions, please contact the Financial Aid Office at financialaid@clayton.edu or 678-466-4815.

- On May 13, 2021 the survey was closed and the amount of the summer awards were determined based on the total eligible students. Students received amounts in the summer that corresponded with their EFC as per the chart below.

EFC as per Completed FASFA	Award Amount
0-3,045	$453
3,046-5,000	$311
5,001+	$210

- Students enrolled in summer 2021 who completed the survey indicating they permit the funds to be used for their account had those funds posted to their account on May 17, 2021. Any refunds as a result of those funds was generated to students actively enrolled in the summer 2021 semester in June 2021 through the Bursar Office refund process.
- Qualified students enrolled in summer 2021 who did not indicate on a survey for the funds to be placed on their account or qualified students enrolled in summer 2021 that did not complete the survey had the amount designated to them based on the chart above on May 17, 2021. The designated funds were provided to actively enrolled and qualified students for summer 2021 in June 2021 through the Bursar Office refund process.
- Any remaining funds after June 2021 were equally divided among the 0-3,045 EFC range and pushed to actively enrolled students through the Bursar Office refund process in July 2021 as part of the summer semester.

What is the CRRSAA Supplemental Grant?

The Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act has been released by the U.S. Department of Education. The CRRSAA Supplemental Grant will provide to colleges and universities cash grants to students related to the disruptions of their education due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Please know that CRRSAA Supplemental Grant awards may vary from student to student based on economic need just as other federal aid (Pell, SEOG) varies. The Financial Aid office at Clayton State University will determine your eligibility for the CRRSAA Supplemental Grant funds using the guidelines provided by the Federal Department of Education.

Who is eligible for the CRRSAA Supplemental Grant?

Students that may receive emergency financial aid grants under the CRRSAA Supplemental Grant must be actively enrolled (including students exclusively enrolled in distance education) and must be a US Citizen or eligible non-citizens.

How do I find out if I'm eligible for the CRRSAA Supplemental Grant?

Eligible students were emailed a survey to determine if they were impacted by the coronavirus on Monday, March 15, 2021 to their Clayton State University email account. If you are unsure if you are eligible, read the above eligibility qualifications and if you still have questions, please contact the Financial Aid Office at financialaid@clayton.edu or 678-466-4815.

How will I receive the CRRSAA Supplemental Grant?

Qualified Students enrolled in summer 2021 who completed the survey indicating they permit the funds to be applied to their account, had those funds posted to their account. Likewise, qualified students enrolled in summer 2021 who do not indicate on the survey for the funds to be placed on their account will be refunded through our third-party servicer, BankMobile. Please make sure that your BankMobile account information is up to date by logging onto BankMobile at: <https://bankmobiledisbursements.com/>, enter your student email and password.
