Step 3: Open the file you just created and you should see a “Listen” button. Clicking this button will allow ReadSpeaker to read the content aloud to you.

The screenshot shows a navigation breadcrumb: "Table of Contents > Start Here > Getting Started". Below this is a section header "Getting Started" with a globe icon and a dropdown arrow. A "Listen" button is visible, featuring a speaker icon, the text "Listen", and a play button icon. Below the button, the text reads: "Hello class," followed by "To get started with this course you'll need to review the syllabus for this course and will help you get an understanding on what".
