

CLAYTON STATE UNIVERSITY

FACT BOOK
2022-2023

Preface

I abhor averages. I like the individual case. A man may have six meals one day and none the next, making an average of three meals per day, but that is not a good way to live.

Louis D. Brandeis

The Office of Institutional Research is responsible for consistent, accurate, and timely official reporting of Clayton State institutional information; using research and analysis in support of institutional management, assessment, and planning; to facilitate decision-making and institutional improvement.

The 2022-2023 FACT BOOK documents the characteristics of Clayton State University and the factors that cause change in these characteristics in order to inform strategic and long-range planning efforts.

Every effort has been made to ensure that the data contained in this document are accurate and easy to use. Prior to use of the data in policy development and/or analysis, you may wish to contact our office to ensure that you receive any post-publication changes.

Our University

University History

In 1965, the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia agreed to create three new junior colleges including one to serve south metropolitan Atlanta. The local community raised $4.9 million to go along with $3.3 million from the University System of Georgia and began construction of a campus on a farm with a few lakes and a healthy stand of trees.

The university has changed substantially since 1969. The pace of change in the economy requires the university to continue to grow and adapt as it empowers students to seek success. Through outstanding programs, dynamic experiences, appropriate support, and an environment that reflects 21st century business and industry, Clayton State University provides students the opportunity and our region the workforce needed to complete and succeed globally. For example, in 2019, the School of Education was formed to meet the growing need for teachers in our public schools. In spring 2020, the College of Business launched a Master of Science in Supply Chain Analytics and a Master of Strategic Leadership Development program. In 2022, the College of Information and Mathematical Sciences launched a Master of Science in Cyber Technology and Master of Data Science, addressing the need for cyber security skills and talent development in the south metro Atlanta region.

Mission of the University

Clayton State University cultivates an environment of engaged, experienced-based learning, enriched by active community service, that prepares students of diverse ages and backgrounds to succeed in their lives and careers. Through a distinctive combination of proven and innovative methods of teaching and learning, Clayton State University will excel in preparing students from many walks of life to meet the challenges of living and working in a dynamic, global society.

Clayton State University is committed to:

- Creating an outstanding educational experience that stimulates intellectual curiosity, critical thinking, and innovation.
- Engendering a spirit of openness, understanding, collaboration, and mutual respect throughout the University.
- Fostering learning that engages students, faculty, staff, alumni, and the greater community.
- Expanding and allocating resources strategically according to its Mission and Values, to support overall institutional effectiveness.
- Providing an inviting and supportive campus community for faculty, staff, and students.
- Repositioning Clayton State University in the higher education marketplace and beyond

Strategic Plan 2022

Positioning the University for Continued Success during a period of dramatic change in higher education

Vision

To become a national model for university-based community engagement and for equipping students with the knowledge, skills, and motivations for learning and success.

Mission

Through teaching, scholarship and service, we provide an environment of experience-based learning, enriched by active community engagement that prepares an increasing number of students from all walks of life to succeed in a diverse society.

Core Values

- Collegiality: We treat each other with respect and work together in a spirit of inclusiveness, collaboration, and teamwork to serve others and reach common goals.
- Excellence: We give our best effort and seek continuous improvement in all our activities.
- Innovation: We are open to new ideas and creative methods for solving problems.
- Integrity: We promote ethical behavior, taking responsibility for our attitudes, actions and results.
- Transparency: We support open, honest and continuous communication.

Strategic Priorities

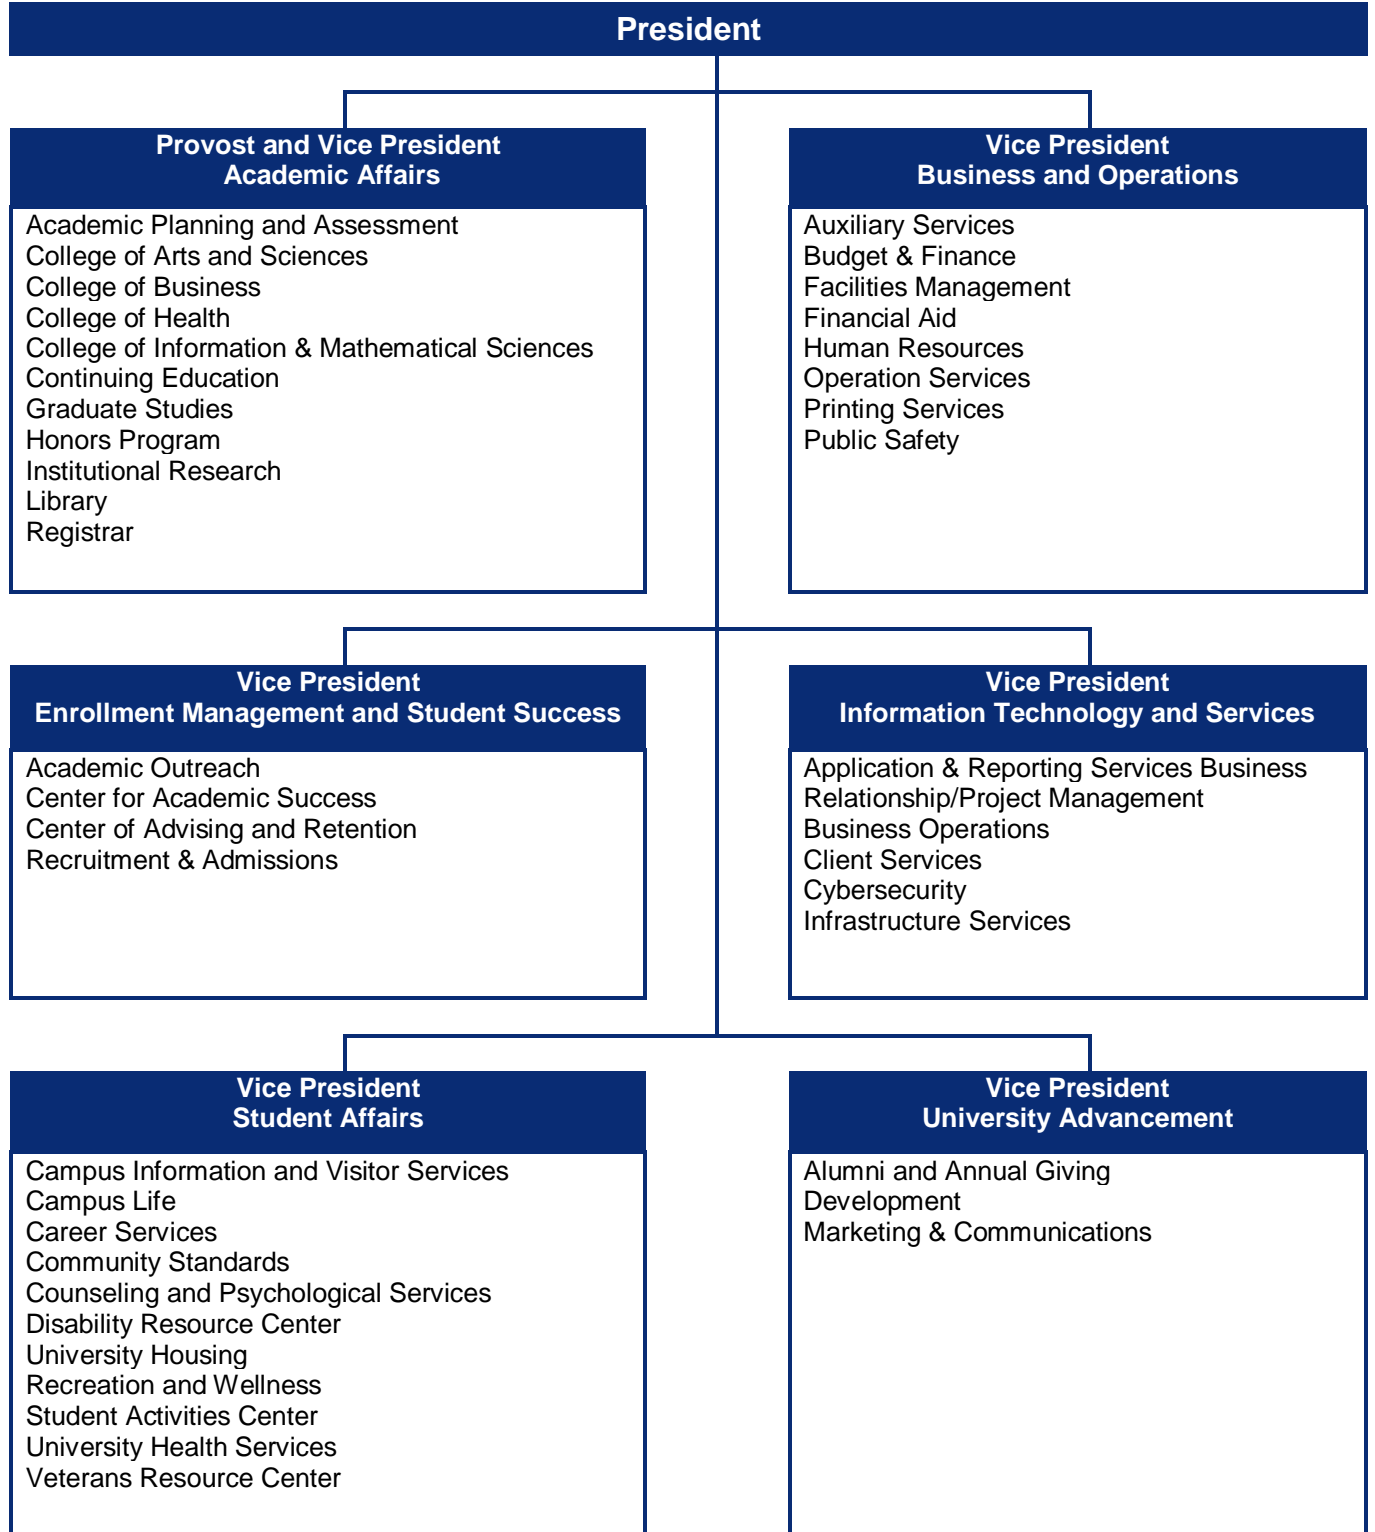

Clayton State University is committed to:

1. Increase enrollment, retention, and graduation rates.
2. Increase external funding.
3. Build brand through community engagement and program development focused on career preparation and success.
4. Promote the brand through an integrated marketing communication program.
5. Advance innovation in experiential teaching styles, methods of delivery and research.
6. Continue investing in infrastructure improvements.
